Remarks: Gail: While the attachment is now a dead issue, I would like to stress that we should watch very carefully our relationships with and requirements levied on the other Directorates so that the type message Paul Walsh sent me is held to the absolute minimum. In the particular instance involved, it also discloses the absolute need for the closest coordination between the activities of your Staff and those of the Office of Logistics. As we both know, there is a line of demarcation which is hard to identify between some ISAS and OL activities. I leave it to your good judgment and initiative to make sure that the closest coordination continues.
